College of Music
UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO BOULDER

NEED TO KNOW FOR THE SHOW

- Please refrain from using electronic devices during the performance. Feel free to view this program on your device at any time prior to the performance, during intermission or after the performance ends.
- Photography and video recordings of any type are strictly prohibited during the performance.
- Smoking is not permitted anywhere. CU Boulder is a smoke-free campus.

CU ★ PRESENTS is the home of performing arts at the University of Colorado Boulder.

The mission of the University of Colorado Boulder College of Music is to inspire artistry and discovery, together.

CU Boulder acknowledges that it is located on the traditional territories and ancestral homelands of the Cheyenne, Arapaho, Ute and many other Native American nations. Their forced removal from these territories has caused devastating and lasting impacts.

Program notes

The Honors Chamber Music Ensemble Program consists of three student chamber ensembles, selected via audition by a panel of College of Music faculty in the fall semester. Any chamber group that participates in the chamber music course in the fall semester is eligible to audition for the program. This year, the distinguished panelists were Professors Michael Dunn, Jennifer Hayghe and David Requiro, and Hope Saska from the CU Boulder Art Museum. These chamber ensembles represent some of the most dedicated and serious student chamber groups in the College of Music. Tonight's performance is one of several performance opportunities these students will have throughout the semester as part of the Honors Chamber Music Ensemble Program. The Chamber Music Program, including the Honors Chamber Music Ensemble Program, is directed by Meta Weiss.
