The University of Colorado Boulder, Colorado's flagship university, honors and recognizes the many contributions of Indigenous peoples in our state. CU Boulder acknowledges that it is located on the traditional territories and ancestral homelands of the Cheyenne, Arapaho, Ute and many other Native American nations. Their forced removal from these territories has caused devastating and lasting impacts. While the University of Colorado Boulder can never undo or rectify the devastation wrought on Indigenous peoples, we commit to improving and enhancing engagement with Indigenous peoples and issues locally and globally.

PROGRAM NOTES

Gay All This Time (2023)— 10'

Annika Socolofsky

These are the first few songs written by my queer country alter ego, EmmyJean Jenkins. Commissioned by Friction Quartet in 2023, these songs explore queer love in the context of a genre that used to be about social progress, the working class and the plight of the underdog.

In recent decades, country has come to represent an opposite ideology in which all minority sexualities, genders, races and the working class are silenced and looked down upon through oppressive anthems and a pining for a period of American history that was hurtful to so many of us Americans. EmmyJean's songs are anthems for the downtrodden—just like the good old days of country intended.

These songs are a celebration of queer love, and a prayer of gratitude for our queer elders. We will never forget those who fought for our queer futures. We will never forget those who we lost from our community due to AIDS, violence and oppression. And we will celebrate their beauty and their stories until our dying days.
