Personnel

William C. Powell serves as professor of music and director of choral activities at Auburn University. He conducts the Chamber Choir, Men's Chorus, Concert Choir and Gospel Choir, and he teaches choral-related courses.

Powell has guest conducted throughout the United States and abroad, including Australia, Italy and Eastern Europe. He serves as a regular adjudicator for various choral festivals such as Festival Disney. He also gives presentations for the National Association for Music Education, American Choral Directors Association, Intercollegiate Men's Choruses, College Music Society, Hawaii International Conference on Arts and Humanities and the National Society of Music in Technology.

His choral arrangements are published by Hal Leonard Corporation, Gentry Publications and Oxford University Press, through which he and his wife, Rosephanye Powell, co-edited a collection titled Spirituals for Upper Voices. He also has a choral series published by Gentry Publications.

An active member of the American Choral Directors Association, Powell has served as the Repertoire and Standards Chair of the Committee on Ethnic and Multicultural Perspectives for the both the southwestern and southern divisions. He also holds memberships with the National Association for Music Education and the American Society of Composers and Publishers. He and his wife, Rosephanye, have two daughters, Camille and Kaitlyn.
