Personnel

Daniel Parks is a doctoral student in choral conducting and literature at the University of Colorado Boulder where he conducts the Collegiate Chorale and Madrigal Singers. He also serves as associate artistic director of the Longmont Chorale. As a music educator, Parks taught choral music at the middle and high schools levels in Wisconsin for five years. As a professional ensemble singer, he has performed with Solis Singers, Alium

Spiritum, the Boulder Chorale, the Minnesota Chorale, Border CrosSing and Weimar Bach Cantata Academy. He completed a master’s degree in choral conducting at the University of Minnesota Twin Cities and a Bachelor of Music degree in music education at Lawrence University. His research interests include vocal improvisation, comprehensive musicianship through performance (CMP) and early music.

Leila Heil is Associate Professor of Music Education at the University of Colorado Boulder. She currently teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in choral music and music education. Her professional experience includes 21 years of public school teaching at the secondary level in Kansas, Arizona and Colorado. From 1990-2013, she served as assistant conductor of the Grammy Jazz Choir, and also served on the faculty of Grammy Camp. Heil has conducted honor choirs in Colorado, Nebraska, Wyoming and Texas, and her professional singing experience includes the St. Martin's Chamber Choir, the Colorado Bach Ensemble and the Phoenix Bach Choir (renamed the Phoenix Chorale). Heil has authored and co-authored articles on improvisation, vocal jazz, teacher identity and pre-service teacher preparation in the Music Educators Journal, Choral Journal, Visions in Music Education Research and Contributions to Music Education. She has presented sessions at numerous international and national conferences including the Midwest Clinic, the Society for Music Teacher Education (SMTE) Conference, the National Association for Music Education (NAfME) Research and Teacher Education Conference, the NAfME National In-service Conference, the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) National Conference, the National Early Music Association (NEMA) Conference, the Research in Music Education Conference (RIME) and the International Jazz Educators Association (IAJE) Conference. She has also presented at state NAfME and ACDA conferences in Colorado, Arizona, Ohio and Texas.
